Welcome,

This site is a project site created by Jason Hall for the GRC 275 class at Truckee Meadows Community College.

This is the "portal" site to the projects and resources that will be used during this class.

This site was project 1 of the semester and the following projects can be found on their respective pages.

There is also a resources page that includes some helpful sites I use for inspiration and various tools that help in the construction of the projects.

About: Jason Hall

Hi, and welcome to my portal site for the Spring 2008 GRC 275 semester. I am a student attending school in Nevada with a major in Graphic Communications. I am currently enrolled full time, and work part-time, but am always seeking new projects. If you have any desire to get in contact with me, you can reach me at the following address: hallj24@tmcc.edu

Please enjoy the site.
